The Friendly Tavern is the oldest saloon in Coloma, making it the oldest tavern in Berrien County still operating in its original location. The building was built around 1890 and has been an active Restaurant or Bar since then. The Friendly has once again established itself as the mainstay of Downtown Coloma. You'll find an ample selection of Salads, Sandwiches, Seafood, Steaks, and Mexican Entrée's. Slow Roasted choice Prime Rib is offered Friday, Saturday, and Sunday in 12oz. - 16oz. portions. Come and visit the Friendly's new addition with expanded seating capacity. You'll find an excellent friendly staff and reasonable prices in a small town old-time atmosphere.

Open
